

WHAT MAKES THERAPY SUCCESSFUL?

- Making a commitment to your personal work
- Showing up on time
- Remembering your appointments
- Scheduling on-going, regular appointments
- Consistent participation in your treatment
- Maintaining honesty
- Willingness to make therapy a priority over other things
- Accepting that change takes time
- Doing it for yourself vs someone else
- Accepting that you need help